THE LEGEND OF HUSSONG'S

HUSSONG'S CANTINA IS THE OLDEST BAR IN MEXICO!

Johann "John" Hussong immigrated to the US from Germany in 1880. Chasing gold, he headed west and found himself in the small fishing village of Ensenada. A twist of fate left him unexpectedly being given a bar. After operating the bar for nearly a year, John purchased the building across the street, and opened a new cantina in May 1892 as "John Hussong's Agency and Diligence." Known as "The bar that built a town", Hussong's has seen gunslingers, movie stars, revolutionaries and even a horse or two darken its doorways. Today, Hussong's Cantina is in the very same building in which it was founded and over 130 years and three generations later, the Hussong's family still owns and manages the cantina.

STORY OF THE MARGARITA

THE MARGARITA WAS INVENTED AT HUSSONG'S BACK IN OCTOBER 1941,

by bartender Don Carlos Orozco. He concocted the perfect mixture of equal parts tequila, Damiana, and lime, served over ice in a salt-rimmed glass for Margarita Henkel, daughter of a foreign Ambassador to Mexico. Not too many people know that, but it's the truth. The story is on record in the Ensenada Historical Society and was verified by Margarita Henkel herself a few years back. We keep with the tradition and serve The Original Margarita hand shaken with only fresh ingredients.
